Details

The Wesley Mission Victoria Records date from 1902. They include records of the Girls' Memorial Home, The South Yarra Home, Tally Ho Boys' Training Farm, Tally Ho Youth Services, Wesley Youth Services and Lincoln House. The records relate to children who were placed with these services. The types of records include admission book registers, individual files (1980's onwards), photographic records and other memorabilia.

Access Conditions

Former residents (and their families) should contact the Uniting Heritage Service to find information, and access personal files. The Uniting Heritage Service is a free service that helps individuals access information about them or family members, as well as access appropriate support should they choose. Heritage Service staff prefer to release records to past residents or their family members in person, where possible, in order to give greater meaning and context to the information.

Records

The collection includes:

- Minutes of the Boys' Parliament 1930-1953
- Foster care client files (1986 –)
- Annual reports (1893 –)
