

Departmental Family Group Homes, Victoria

1956 – 2000s

Details

From the mid 1950s the State Government of Victoria, via its various departments governing child welfare, operated a large number of family group homes under its Family Group Home Program. These Family Group Homes were located in inner and outer suburban Melbourne as well as in more regional locations across the state. The opening and closing dates for many of these family group homes are not yet known.
