1950s – c. 1996

Other Names: • Trigg Group Home

Details

The Trigg Home was started by the Home Mission Society of the Anglican Diocese of Sydney. It may date from the 1950s but probably started in the 1970s. It was located at Granville and took its name from one of the cottages at the Carlingford Boys' Home. It was absorbed into Charlton Youth Services in 1985 and operated as a group home until it closed in 1996
