

Jubilee Home

1887 – 1960?

Other Names: • Jubilee Registry Office and Home

Details

The Jubilee Home was established in 1887 in Sydney by the Blue Ribbon Gospel Army and Woman's Christian Temperance Union, led by Louisa, wife of George Edward Ardill. It was later operated by the Sydney Rescue Work Society. It was a hostel for young women arriving in Sydney from the country and was located in Elizabeth Street, Sydney before moving to Commonwealth Street, Surry Hills. It closed in the 1960s.
