

Presbyterian Metropolitan Mission

1900 – 1973?

Other Names: • Metropolitan Missions

Details

The Presbyterian Metropolitan Mission was a city mission run by the Presbyterian Church in Sydney.

Gallery

We were Burnie kids

Description: This silent footage was produced by Burnside Homes to promote the work of the Homes and raise funds. It shows the Homes' association with the Presbyterian Church and how some children from poor families in the inner suburbs of Sydney were taken to Burnside Homes by Reverend Scott of the Presbyterian Metropolitan Mission. It shows children playing and learning in the Burnside Homes, and the grounds and buildings. The recent preservation of this footage was the result of a partnership between Uniting Care Burnside, Parramatta Heritage Centre and Anne Matthews. The footage dates from the period 1937 to around 1940, because it shows 1930s renovations to Wynyard Station, the Scots Church building (1934), a Plymouth PE Deluxe car (manufactured in Australia by Holden from 1934) and a set of traffic lights in Sydney CBD (1937). This URL was taken from the Wayback Machine and is dated 30 March 2018.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Presbyterian Church of Australia \(1901 - current\)
The Presbyterian Metropolitan Mission was the welfare arm of the Presbyterian Church in Sydney.
- Burnside Presbyterian Orphan Homes \(1911 - 1955\)
Presbyterian Metropolitan Mission was the charitable arm of the Presbyterian Church and was responsible for referring many families in hardship to Burnside Presbyterian Orphan Homes
- Burnside Presbyterian Homes for Children \(1955 - 1978\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/presbyterian-metropolitan-mission/>