

Australian Protestant Orphans' Society

1909 – 1983?

Details

The Australian Protestant Orphans' Society was established in 1909 by Dr Dill Macky. Macky established the Society 'for the purpose of founding a Home for Protestant orphan children.' The Society later ran the King Edward VII Home, Auburn and the Dill Macky Memorial Homes in Auburn and Strathfield. In 1928 its president was Mr A Champion.

More info

Related Entries

Ran

- King Edward VII Home, Auburn \(1911 - 1917\)
- Dr Dill Macky Memorial Home for Children, Auburn \(1917 - 1982\)
- Dr Dill Macky Memorial Home \(1922 - 1983\)

Resources

- Dill Macky Homes, The Sydney Morning Herald, 20 March 1922
- Australian Protestant Orphans' Society, Annual report: and statement of receipts and expenditure for the year ending 30 June/Australian Protestant Orphans' Society, 1918

Records

Records held by other organisations

- Dr. Dill Macky Memorial Home for Children records and pictorial material, 1910-1983 \(1910 - 1983\)
- [Correspondence files, single number series with 'B' \[Child Endowment\] prefix \(1904 - 1974\)](#)
Item B275 of the Child Endowment correspondence files relates to the Australian Protestant Orphans' Society

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/australian-protestant-orphans-society/>