

St Anne's [Hospital]

1944 – 1951

Details

St Anne's was a 10-bed maternity hospital for unmarried mothers. It was established by the Society of St Vincent de Paul at St Anthony's Croydon in 1944, in a cottage beside the Kelly Wing. It was converted to a nursery in 1952.

More info

Chronology

- St Anne's [Hospital] (1944 – 1951)
 - St Anne's Nursery (1952 - 1963)

Related Entries

Run by

- St Vincent de Paul Society \(1854 - current\)

Related Organisations

- St Anthony's Home Croydon \(1925 - 1980\)
St Anne's was part of St Anthony's Home Croydon

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/st-annes-hospital/>