

Phillips Cottage

1982 - 1990?

Other Names:

- Special Projects of the United Protestant Association
- Family Group Home Maitland

Details

Phillips Cottage was a foster home set up by the United Protestant Association at Maitland. The UPA had intended to open a family group home at Maitland, but it was not required. It opened as Special Projects of the UPA then became a foster home for a family of three children and was named Phillips Cottage, in honour of its benefactor. It closed around 1990.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

• United Protestant Association of New South Wales Ltd (1938 - current)

Resources

- United Protestant Association of N.S.W., The Protestant world : official organ of the United Protestant Association of New South Wales., 1921 1980
- UPA Board, The Board of the UPA of NSW has issued the following apology, UPA of NSW Ltd website, 2018

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records held by other organisations

• United Protestant Association of New South Wales Records (1932 - current)

You can view this page online by visiting https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/phillips-cottage/