

Liverpool State Hospital and Home

1933 – 1962

Details

The Liverpool State Hospital and Home was formerly the Liverpool Asylum for the Infirm and Destitute. It was a hospital and home that was for adults and young people in need of support, including people with disabilities. It was run by the New South Wales Government and operated from 1933 until 1962.

More info

Chronology

- Liverpool Asylum for the Infirm and Destitute (1862 - 1933)
 - Liverpool State Hospital and Home (1933 – 1962)

Related Entries

Run by

- Department of Public Health, State Government of New South Wales \(1938 - 1973\)

Resources

- Museums of History NSW, Infirm / Destitute Asylums Guide, No date

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Liverpool Asylum Records, State Archives NSW \(1859 - 1959\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/liverpool-state-hospital-and-home/>