

Bernard-Smith Children's Home

1960 – 1988

Other Names: • Bernard Smith Children's Home

Details

The Bernard-Smith Children's Home was established at Hamilton Park, Pymble by the Central Methodist Mission. It opened on 27 February 1960 after the building, Hamilton Park, was donated by Ken Bernard-Smith, a solicitor. It could accomodate 25 children children aged from two to 17. The Home closed in 1988.

It was reported on RealEstate.com.au that children who lived at the Bernard-Smith Children's Home lived in dormitories, attended West Gordon Primary School, and went to church every Sunday.
