Details

BoysTown Records is an archival collection comprising various records from BoysTown and its related residential facilities. The records relating to former residents include admission and discharge records and student files. The more recent records are more extensive and include copies of education certificates and other information. The collection includes historical material such as issues of the BoysTown Calling publication, and administration and personnel files.

Access Conditions

Information is available to the person to whom it relates. It is requested that application be made in writing. Due to the need to protect the privacy of all living persons mentioned in the records, physical access is not permitted.
