Details

The Investigation Files (Westbrook Training Centre) were created by the Childrens' Services Department and subsequent Departments responsible for juvenile justice to record investigations into incidents at Westbrook occurring between 1971 and 1994. There are 17 files in this series, which date from 1971-1975, and 1991-1994. The files include depositions, reports, recommendations, notes from interviews, inter-departmental correspondence, memos, ministerial statements, and press clippings. Queensland State Archives generally does not provide detail about the kinds of incidents referred to in these files, however one is noted as relating to misconduct of staff.

Access Conditions

Access to records in this series is restricted for 100 years. To apply for access to these records please contact Queensland State Archives.
