

Basil Stafford Centre

1968 – 2013

Other Names: • Farm Ward Complex

Details

The Basil Stafford Centre was established in 1968. The Centre provided accommodation and associated care services for intellectually disabled people, including children. The Basil Stafford Centre closed in 2013.

The Centre was originally part of the Wolston Park Special Hospital, then in 1960 a separate centre providing institutional accommodation for children was established. It was named the Basil Stafford Centre in 1968. Children from the Challinor Centre were transferred to the Basil Stafford Centre in 1977.
