Details

These Admission Registers relate to the Townsville Orphanage and Townsville Receiving Depot. The registers contain information about children admitted to the Townsville Orphanage and Receiving Depot, including name, age, date of admission, birthplace, parent's names and occupations, whether parents are living, reasons for child's admission, and dates of placements and discharge.

Access Conditions

Some of these registers are open access, and others are restricted to protect personal privacy. Four of the five open access registers have been digitised, and can be accessed by clicking the 'View Digitised Item' button on the item page. To access the undigitised open access register, or to apply for access to the restricted register, please contact Queensland State Archives.
