Details

This is a series containing correspondence files of the Health and Home Affairs Department that relate to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in Queensland. This series also includes correspondence of the Office of the Chief Protector of Aborigines and the Office of the Director of Native Affairs, which were part of the Health and Home Affairs Department. The correspondence relates to a variety of matters such as the removal of children, reserves, missions and settlements, children's homes, removals from country and exemptions, education, housing, applications for adoptions, and files on individuals.

Access Conditions

The majority of files in this series are open access and can be viewed by any member of the public. A small number of files are restricted in order to protect personal privacy. For access to open records, or to apply for access to restricted records, please contact Queensland State Archives.
