Details

This series contains over 10,000 correspondence files from various Queensland state government departments relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander affairs. The files relate to matters including missions, child endowment, communities, adoption, welfare, medical treatment, education, employment, rations, evacuations, removals, housing, and living conditions. Approximately 500 of these files may contain information relevant to people who were removed from their families as children.

Access Conditions

Some records in this series are open access and are available for viewing by any member of the public. However, most records in this series have restricted access for up to 100 years in order to protect personal privacy. To access open records, or to apply for access to restricted records, please contact Queensland State Archives.
