

Glenties Mothers' Hospital

1924 – 1938

Details

The Glenties Mothers' Hospital, in Rockhampton, was run by the Salvation Army. Until 1924, it had been known as the Glenties Rescue Home. It provided care for babies awaiting adoption, and young girls who were pregnant, destitute or homeless. It also functioned as a private maternity hospital for married women. In 1938, it was renamed Bethesda Mothers' Hospital.
