

Territorial Social Programme branch of The Salvation Army

– 2012

Details

The Territorial Social Programme branch of The Salvation Army formerly managed the records of the Salvation Army Girls Home, Fullarton (1901 – 1986) and the Salvation Army Boys Home, Eden Park (Mount Barker) (1900 – 1982). In 2012 it changed its name to the Salvation Army Australian Southern Territory Territorial Headquarters.

All surviving records relating to children who spent time in Salvation Army Homes in South Australia are held in the Salvation Army Australian Southern Territory Territorial Headquarters, in Blackburn, Victoria.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- The Salvation Army Australia Southern Territory \(1921 - 2018\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/territorial-social-programme-branch-of-the-salvation-army/>