Details

Access Conditions

All applications for access to records held or searched by the Adoption and Family Information Service must be made via a Request for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 form. This form is available online at Families SA.
