

Centacare Catholic Family Services

1992 –

URL: <http://www.centacare.org.au/>

Details

Centacare Catholic Family Services was established in 1992 and replaced the Catholic Family Welfare Bureau. Centacare is a Catholic welfare organisation which delivers a range of welfare services across the Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide. The organisation has a strong focus on social justice and supports people who have been marginalised or who are experiencing hardship. Centacare is responsible for the running of a small number of residential and respite care facilities, primarily for children and adults with disabilities.

More info

Chronology

- Catholic Family Welfare Bureau (South Australia) (1942 - 1992)
 - Centacare Catholic Family Services (1992 –)

Related Entries

Ran

- Avila, Brighton \(1981 - 1994\)
- Kolbe Cottage Home \(1982 - current\)
- Miroma Respite Care \(1985 - current\)
- Seanachai Cottage Home \(1988 - 1997\)
- McAuley Lodge \(1990 - 1994\)
Date: 1992 - 1994
- Kilkenny House \(1993? - current\)
- Royston Park House \(1997 - 1998?\)
- St Joseph's Home \(2001 - current\)
- St Vincent de Paul Group Home \(2001 - current\)
- Louise Place \(c. 2001 - current\)
Date: 2001 -
- Auricht House \(2005 - current\)
Professional Standards Office Records Service of the Catholic Church manages records about Auricht House

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/centacare-catholic-family-services-2/>