Details

The Fairbridge Society in Britain held personal and institutional records that may be of interest to people who were placed in as children at Fairbridge Farm School, Pinjarra, Western Australia, or at Drapers Hall in South Australia. These records are now managed by The Prince's Trust, a British charitable organisation that merged with Fairbridge in 2011. A finding aid titled 'Information Sheet 14 [Fairbridge Archive, UK]' has been developed to describe the items in the collection, which also includes academic books and personal recollections.

Access Conditions

For access to records relating to the Fairbridge Society managed by The Prince's Trust please contact The Prince's Trust. Access to these records is subject to some restrictions based on the data protection laws of the United Kingdom.
