Details

Kennerley Children's Homes Records date from 1869. The records include nominal rolls, photographs, annual reports, and personal files. However, this is a small remnant of the original collection. Kennerley Boys' Home (now Kennerley Children's Home) sold their site in Lansdowne Crescent in 1969. About that time, most of the records were destroyed by a fire in a South Hobart shed.

Access Conditions

Care leavers (and their families) wanting to find information or access personal files can contact Kennerley Children's Home. Kennerley's 2012 policy statement explains the organisation's policy around access to confidential information. It states that 'clients' of Kennerley Children's Homes, including former residents, have the right to access their records and advise the organisation of any inaccuracies. It also sets out the procedures for family members of former residents to access records.

The records held by Kennerley Children's Home dates from 1869.
