

Catholic Welfare Organisation

1940 – 1948?

Details

The Catholic Welfare Organisation originated in 1940 to provide amenities to the soldiers in the Catholic hut at Brighton. At the end of World War Two, it appears to have extended its activities to other social causes. For instance, it provided support to girls leaving St Joseph's Orphanage. The Catholic Welfare Organisation closed in about 1948.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- St Joseph's Orphanage \(1879 - 1970\)

The Catholic Welfare Organisation provided support to girls when they left St Joseph's Orphanage.

Records

Records held by other organisations

- M2181 St Joseph's Orphanage \(1949 - 1954\)

The file contains some information about the Catholic Welfare Organisation.

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/catholic-welfare-organisation/>