

Tasdeaf

1987 –

Other Names:

- Expression Australia
- Tasmanian Deaf Society

URL: <https://www.expression.com.au/>

Details

Tasdeaf formed in 1987 following a recommendation by the Arthur Young Review of Services that the Society for the Blind, Deaf and Dumb be split into two. In 2012, the organisation offers Auslan interpreting, courses in Auslan, support to people who are deaf or hard of hearing, deaf cultural awareness training, and advocacy. In 2016 Tasdeaf and Vicdeaf merged, and in 2018 rebranded as Expression Australia.

Tasdeaf used to hold some of the records of the Blind, Deaf and Dumb Institute. Those records are now in the Tasmanian Archives. For closed records, contact Expression Australia (TasDeaf) and they will assist in the process to gain access to the records.

More info

Chronology

- Society for the Blind, Deaf and Dumb (1887 - 1987)
- Blind, Deaf and Dumb Institution (1898 - 1987)
 - Tasdeaf (1987 –)

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Royal Guide Dogs Tasmania \(1987 - current\)
The Royal Guide Dogs and the Tasmanian Deaf Society both evolved from the Society for the Blind, Deaf and Dumb.

Records

Records

- Case Files, Tasmanian Institute for the Blind, Deaf and Dumb; Tasmanian Deaf Society \(1930 - 2006\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/tasdeaf/>