Details

---

The Case Files of the Child Welfare Division (Northern Office) contain personal information about wards of state and other children that came under the supervision of the Children of the State Department and its successors between 1932 and 2003.

Access Conditions

Closed D75 years

D75 means these records are closed to the general public for 75 years from the date of the last entry in them. People wishing to access these records should contact Adoptions and Permanency Services After Care Support Program, which is run by the Department of Communities Tasmania. Applicants will be required to fill out a Personal Information Protection (PIP) form. How access is provided once permission is granted will depend on the file. Usually Adoption and Permanency Services request it back and then provide access or copies. Staff at the Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office may be able to assist you in finding other relevant records.

Records

These files contain correspondence about children and their families in the North of the State. These files appear to be case files held and maintained by the Northern Office of the Child Welfare Division.

The Tasmanian Archives also hold an index (Series SWD61) to these case files to assist with identification of records relating to an individual.
