Details

The Register/Index of Appearances by Juveniles in the Children’s Court in Tasmania includes cases dismissed, admonished and discharged, and adjourned without a date for resuming the case. These records date from 1941 to 1981. They come from the Hobart Area Office of the Social Services Department and its successor, the Social Welfare Department.

Access Conditions

Closed D75 years

D75 means these records are closed to the general public for 75 years from the date of the last entry in them. People wishing to access these records should contact Adoptions and Permanency Services After Care Support Program, which is run by the Department of Communities Tasmania. Applicants will be required to fill out a Personal Information Protection (PIP) form. How access is provided once permission is granted will depend on the file. Usually Adoption and Permanency Services request it back and then provide access or copies. Staff at the Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office may be able to assist you in finding other relevant records.

Records

The records include the court number and the offence with the date the child committed it.
