Access Conditions

Closed D75 years

D75 means these records are closed to the general public for 75 years from the date of the last entry in them. People wishing to access these records should contact Adoptions and Permanency Services After Care Support Program, which is run by the Department of Communities Tasmania. Applicants will be required to fill out a Personal Information Protection (PIP) form. How access is provided once permission is granted will depend on the file. Usually Adoption and Permanency Services request it back and then provide access or copies. Staff at the Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office may be able to assist you in finding other relevant records.

Records

At some stage, an employee of the Department removed these case records from the Correspondence Files which have the series number AD203.

There are 37 items in this series. They are arranged chronologically. Their listing can be viewed by going to the Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office website.
