Details

The Master Index to Case Files usually record the name and addresses of families who received relief or whose children were wards of state or being supervised by the Department in some other way, for instance as child migrants. Some cards also give the type of relief, the names of family members, including children, case file numbers and/or the series and item number in the General Welfare Case Files.

Access Conditions

Closed D75 years

D75 means these records are closed to the general public for 75 years from the date of the last entry in them. People wishing to access these records should contact Adoptions and Permanency Services After Care Support Program, which is run by the Department of Communities Tasmania. Applicants will be required to fill out a Personal Information Protection (PIP) form. How access is provided once permission is granted will depend on the file. Usually Adoption and Permanency Services request it back and then provide access or copies. Staff at the Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office may be able to assist you in finding other relevant records.
