Records

These files may include prisoner description sheets, photographs, movements of the prisoner, psychological assessments, warrants, lists of offences and sentences, applications and correspondence relating to remissions of sentence and general correspondence relating to the prisoner. They are arranged alphabetically by name. Individuals may be named in more than one file in this series. Tasmanian Archives state that this series did at one stage contain more files, however some have since been destroyed. Those that were left have been retained for the purpose of illustrating the procedures and documentation practices of the prison system.
