

Landsdale House

1995 –

Other Names: • Landsdale Early Adolescent Unit

Details

Landsdale House has been run by the Salvation Army in the Perth suburb of Landsdale since 1995 as a Group Home for 8 young people aged 12-16 years.

Landsdale House (a residential program for up to eight children aged 12-15 years) and the Wylie Centre (an education unit), which were part of the Salvation Army's Crossroads west, were opened on a 2.6 hectare property in Landsdale on 26 November 1995. Some young people who had previously been accommodated at Hollywood Children's Village were placed at Landsdale House.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Crossroads west \(1991 - current\)

Crossroads west is an administrative body of Salvation Army, Western Australia.

Related Organisations

- The Salvation Army Australia Southern Territory \(1921 - 2018\)
Salvation Army, Western Australia oversees the running of Landsdale House through its administrative unit, Crossroads west.
- Hollywood Children's Village, Salvation Army \(1965 - 1994\)
Some young people who had been resident at Hollywood Children's Village, Salvation Army were placed at Landsdale House.
- Family Group Homes run by The Salvation Army \(Southern Territory\) \(1980s - 2000s\)
- Department for Family and Children's Services, State of Western Australia \(1 July 1995 - 1 July 2001\)
Landsdale House was run by the Salvation Army under a Service Agreement with the Department.

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records held by other organisations

- Historical records and memorabilia of Salvation Army institutions, Southern Territory
 - [Department of Aboriginal Affairs \[predecessors\], Records \(1886 - 2004\)](#)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/landsdale-house/>