

Maddington Scatter Cottage

1982 – 1991?

Details

Maddington Scatter Cottage was established and run by Sister Kate's Child and Family Services from 1982 to 1988 and then by Manguri from 1988. The cottage accommodated Aboriginal children in a home-like setting. Children may have been placed by child welfare authorities, or privately by family or others. The cottage had been purchased with funds provided by a private donor. It closed around 1991.
