

Tuart Place

May 2012 –

URL: <http://www.tuartplace.org>

Details

Tuart Place is a resource service for people who were in any type of out-of-home care during childhood, including foster care and children's Homes. It is located in Fremantle, Western Australia and is open three days each week. Tuart Place has been set up to provide people who have been in out of home care with: assistance to obtain records, individual counselling and support groups, access to family tracing, social activities, computer skills classes, and help in dealing with other agencies.

Gallery

Tuart Place

Description: This is a photograph of the front entrance of Tuart Place in Fremantle, Western Australia. Tuart Place is a resource centre for people who have been in out of home care.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- CBERS Consultancy \(2006 - 2012\)
- FACT \(Forgotten Australians Coming Together\) \(October 2009 - current\)
FACT established Tuart Place to support and help people who were in out of home care as children in Western Australia.

Resources

- Stephen Irons interviewed by Garry Sturgess in the Forgotten Australians and Former Child Migrants oral history project, 24 November 2011
- Maria Harries interviewed by Christine Choo in the Forgotten Australians and Former Child Migrants oral history project, 23 November 2011 - 28 November 2011

Records

Records held by this organisation

- Tuart Place Historical Photos Collection

Records held by other organisations

- PHIND Personal History Index \(1938 - 1965\)
PHIND can be accessed through Tuart Place.

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/tuart-place-2/>