

Protestant Children's Home

1921 – 1964

Details

The Protestant Children's Home was established in 1921 as a hostel for girls from regional areas who went to high school in Geraldton. It was administered and run by Geraldton Protestant Homes Inc., which was formed by Protestant churches in Geraldton. In 1964 it became Dellahale House.

Although the Protestant Children's Home was established for high-school aged girls, it did also accept younger girls and boys up to the age of 10. Children at the home ranged between 5 and 17 years in age. In 1921 the Home had capacity for 20 children, and for 30 children by 1936, at which time plans were being made for additions which would house a further 10 children.. Parents were required to pay weekly boarding fees, with a slight discount provided for families with multiple children living in the Home.

Gallery

Geraldton Protestant Children's Home

Description: This photograph shows the building in which the Geraldton Protestant Children's Home was situated. The image was originally published in The Sunday Times, Perth, Western Australia, on the 10th July 1921.

More info

Chronology

- Protestant Children's Home (1921 – 1964)
 - Dellahale House (1964 - 2001)

Related Entries

Run by

- Geraldton Protestant Children's Home Inc \(1921 - current\)

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Files - Child Welfare, State Records Office of Western Australia \(1 January 1917 - 16 June 1972\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/protestant-childrens-home-2/>