

Chief Protector of Aborigines, Northern Territory, South Australian Government

1910 – 1910

Details

The Chief Protector of Aborigines was made the legal guardian of every Aboriginal child under the provisions of the Northern Territory Aborigines Act 1910 (SA). This position continued under Commonwealth legislation after the Northern Territory came under Commonwealth control in 1911.

More info

Chronology

- Protector of Aborigines, Northern Territory, South Australian Government (1864 - 1910)
 - Chief Protector of Aborigines, Northern Territory, South Australian Government (1910 – 1910)
 - Chief Protector of Aborigines, Northern Territory, Australian Government (1911 - 1939)

Related Entries

Related Legislation

- Northern Territory Aborigines Act 1910, Northern Territory \(1910 - 1918\)

Related Organisations

- Northern Territory Aborigines Department, South Australian Government \(1910 - 1928\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/chief-protector-of-aborigines-northern-territory/>