

Aboriginals Ordinance 1939, Northern Territory

1939 – 1953

Details

The Aboriginals Ordinance 1939 (Act No. 4/1939) amended the Aboriginals Ordinance 1918. The 1918 Ordinance had already undergone amendments in 1924, 1927, 1928, 1930, 1933, 1936 and 1937. The 1939 amendment was significant because it brought about the abolition of the role of Chief Protector, replacing it with the Director of Native Affairs. It commenced on 5 April 1939.

More info

Related Entries

Amends

- Aboriginals Ordinance 1918, Northern Territory \(1918 - 1953\)

Related Organisations

- Medical Services, Health and Aboriginals Branch, Australian Government \(1931 - 1939\)
- Native Affairs Branch, Australian Government \(1939 - 1955\)

Related Concepts

- Law in the Northern Territory \(1863 - current\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/aboriginals-ordinance-1939/>