Details

The file Records of the Parish of the Ascension, Alice Springs, contains some social work reports and administrative documents containing the names of some children and small amounts of information about them. It is by no means complete.

Access Conditions

For access to Anglican records held by the Northern Territory Archives Service (NTAS), researchers need to seek permission from the Anglican Church in Australia, Diocese of the Northern Territory. Archivists at NTAS can help you with this. You will first need to identify relevant records from lists held by NTAS and then request permission to access these particular records.

Once permission to access the records is given, the researcher needs to take the relevant paper work to NTAS where access will be arranged.
