Details

The State Records Office of Western Australia (SROWA) holds a collection of records created by Cundeelee Mission School. Children from Cundeelee Mission attended this school. The collection includes records about children's admission to and attendance at school, journals of the head teacher, and reports of the district superintendent's inspections of the school.

Access

Some records in this collection have restricted access, and for others access information has not yet been declared by SROWA. For access to these records please contact SROWA. The Department of Education will need to give permission prior to SROWA granting access. People seeking permission should fill out a Former Student Application for Access to Documents form, or a Freedom of Information application form, and submit it to the Department of Education Corporate Information Services team.
