Details

Files (Moola Bulla Station) is a record series created by Moola Bulla Station and the Department of Aborigines and Fisheries, and held by the State Records Office of Western Australia. It contains records relating to the administration, finances, and management of Moola Bulla Station, including items relating to wages, expenditure, mail service, stores, and livestock. With possible exception to the records relating to the payment of wages, it is unlikely that these records contain information about the people living at the station.

Access

This series is open access. Please contact the State Records Office of Western Australia for access to these records.
