

Depot

Details

---

A depot (or receiving depot) was a type of institution for children. In the nineteenth century and twentieth century, a receiving depot was an institution for the temporary admission of children, from which they would be admitted into a placement in a children's Home or foster care. Depots also provided short-term accommodation between placements. From the mid-twentieth century, these institutions were known as reception centres.

Click here to see the full Find & Connect glossary

More info

---

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/depot/>