

Scatter Cottage

1970s – 1980s

Other Names: • Scatter Home

Details

Scatter Cottage was a term used in Western Australia to describe a model of out of home 'care' where a group of children lived in a cottage with houseparents. Scatter cottages were run by institutions but were not located on the same property as main institutional buildings.

More info

You can view this page online by visiting <https://findconnect.efront.digital/entity/scatter-cottage/>