Details

This series consists of indexes to the names of foster parents to, and employers of, children in State care in Southern Queensland, Rockhampton, and Townsville. The indexes include information such as name of foster parent/employer, address (usually suburb only) and registration number. Cards from the Rockhampton and Townsville regions also include information about whether the child is boarding or has been hired out.

Access Conditions

Access to this index is restricted for 100 years in order to protect personal privacy. To apply for access to this index please contact Queensland State Archives.
