Information contained in the registers includes child's name, admission number, date of admission, date of birth and age on admission, parent's names, occupations, and address, religious denomination, school grade, date of leaving the school, and date of re-admission where relevant. The registers also sometimes refer to special visits of occasions.

Records

Although these registers have been titled as Wilson Youth Hospital School, they refer to schooling at Westbrook Farm Home for Boys, and pre-date the opening of the Wilson School in 1961. Primary School aged children were transferred to Wilson School from Westbrook in 1961. It is likely that this register was also transferred to the new school at this time, as it would have contained current student details, but was not used by Wilson School.
