Details

---

This series contains files relating to the adoption of children from the Torres Strait Islands, and associated administrative processes. The files include application forms for adoptions, consent forms, birth certificates (both original and post-adoption), and correspondence. The files are titled with the names of the involved parties. Some of the files may relate to cases where an adoption did not result (i.e. unsuccessful applications).

Access Conditions

Access to this series is restricted for 100 years to protect personal privacy. To apply for access to these records please contact Queensland State Archives.
