Details

This series contains the annual reports of the Warilda children's Home. The reports include information about the running of the home such as statistics and finances. Some reports between 1973 and 1983 also include lists of children living at the Home. There is also a list of children at Warilda for the 1967-1968 financial year, although there is no accompanying report.

Access Conditions

Access to this series is restricted for 100 years to protect personal privacy. To apply for access to this series please contact Queensland State Archives.
