Details

---

This series contains over 5,000 correspondence files from various Queensland state government departments relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander affairs. The files relate to matters including missions, child endowment, communities, adoption, welfare, medical treatment, education, employment, rations, evacuations, removals, housing, and living conditions. Approximately 60 of these files may contain information relevant to people who were removed from their families as children.

Access Conditions

While a small number of records in this series are open access, the majority have restricted access for up to 100 years in order to protect personal privacy. To access open records, or to apply for access to restricted records, please contact Queensland State Archives.

Records

The below document contains a list of items in this series that may be of relevance to members of the Stolen Generations or Care Leavers. The items in this list are arranged by the Mission/Home/Institution or theme that they refer to.
